Who’s Pulling Jason Kenney’s Strings?

Jason T. Kenney

Minister of Justice and Attorney General, Department of Justice of Canada

ABOUT US EVENTS MORE FROM THE FORUM

00:00 04:39

Alberta Premier Jason Kenney doesn’t seem all that concerned that a possible 90% of positive cases in the Province could be due to error. One would think he’d be happy to know that. Here is the full interview with Danielle Smith, from November 2020. The above clip starts at about 28:30.

Don't forget, Kenney previously attended Bilderberg. Therefore, globalist ties must at least be assumed at this point. And he does nothing to dispel the suspicions.

Now, why would Kenney be so vaxx happy if there is such a prevalence of false positives? One possibility is that his interests lie elsewhere. Let's see who he's been talking to in the last year or so. According to the Alberta Lobbying Registry, the following meetings happened:

- January 13, 2020 (Pfizer)
- February 14, 2020 (Novartis)

It should go without saying that there are more instances of lobbying not listed here.

This is particularly interesting since it's not the Provinces who do the purchasing of vaccines. That is handled by the Federal Government. Of course, this is quite the list. Now, who are some of the people who have been wanting to push big pharma onto Kenney and Alberta?

1. Hal Danchilla, Kenney's (Former?) Campaign Strategist

Almost every political event in Alberta over the last 30 years has been shaped, advised, managed, directed, or informed by Hal. He has managed and advised leadership and election campaigns at all levels of government.

Most notably, Hal served as a political advisor during the Klein administration, provided strategic advice to Stephen Mandel's successful underdog campaign to become Mayor of Edmonton and, along with Jason Kenney, chaired and managed the leadership and national campaign for Stockwell Day and the Canadian Alliance. Recently, Hal has become a trusted advisor and campaign strategist for now Premier Kenney.

Since 1998, Hal has delivered results to clients, not just in government relations, but in strategic and crisis communications, negotiations, advocacy and influencing public opinion.

> Hal has led many challenging projects, including the reclamation of contaminated sites, forming new industry associations, securing access for rare pharmaceuticals and guiding professional compensation strategies.
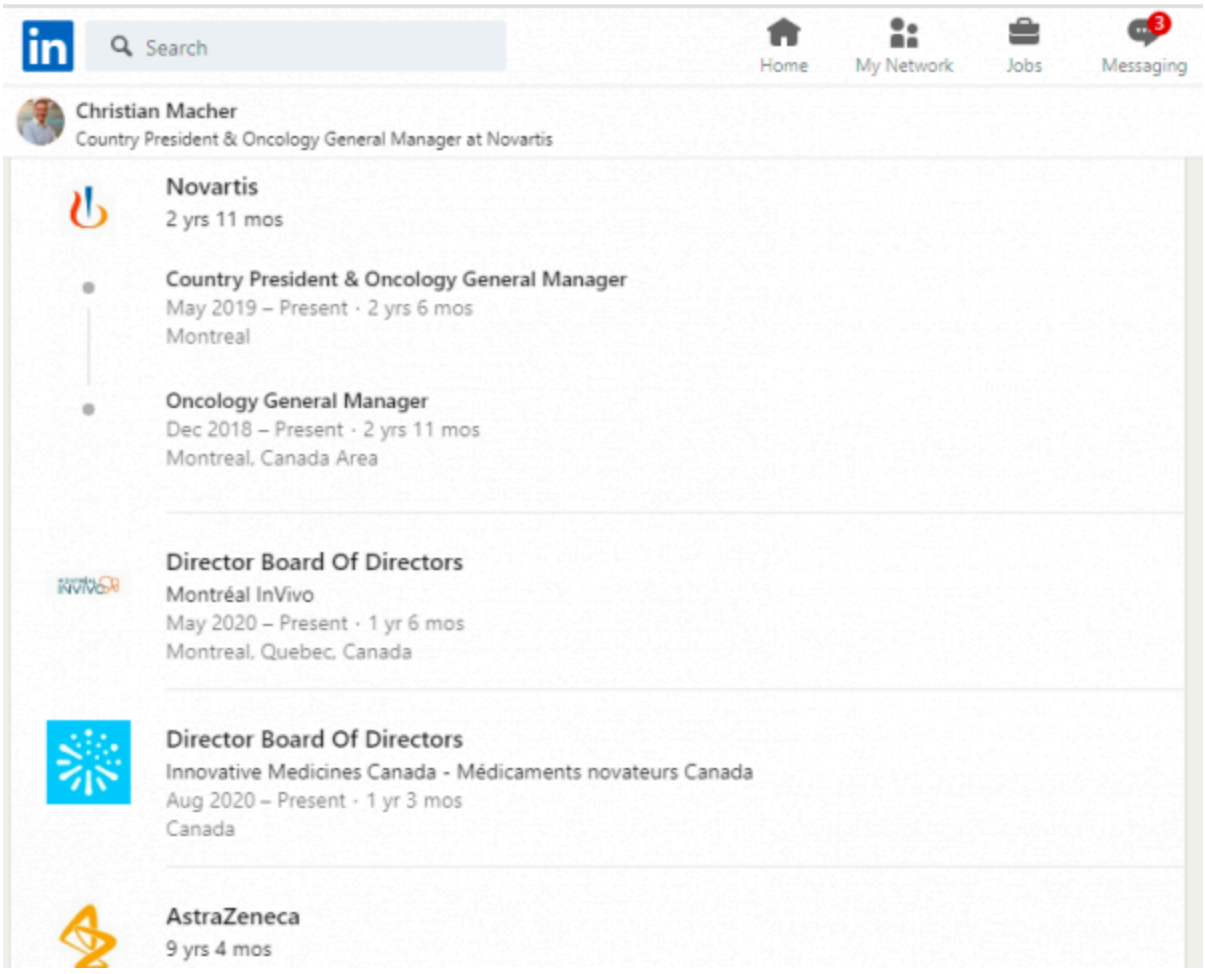
> Hal is a frequent media commentator and panellist, executive and board speaker, and guest lecturer at the University of Alberta

Either this guy really likes to grandstand, or Alberta politicians are all just puppets. Danchilla brags about influencing Municipal, Provincial, and Federal politics. This veteran handler is now a pharmaceutical lobbyist whose name is all over these registrations.

2. Christian Macher, Novartis Manager



Going back to his days at Proctor & Gamble, AstraZeneca, Innovative Medicines Canada, and Novartis, this man has had a lengthy career in the pharmaceutical industry.

Even pharmacists need someone fighting in their corner. It's not like the drug companies themselves have vested interests in seeing their products being sold en masse.

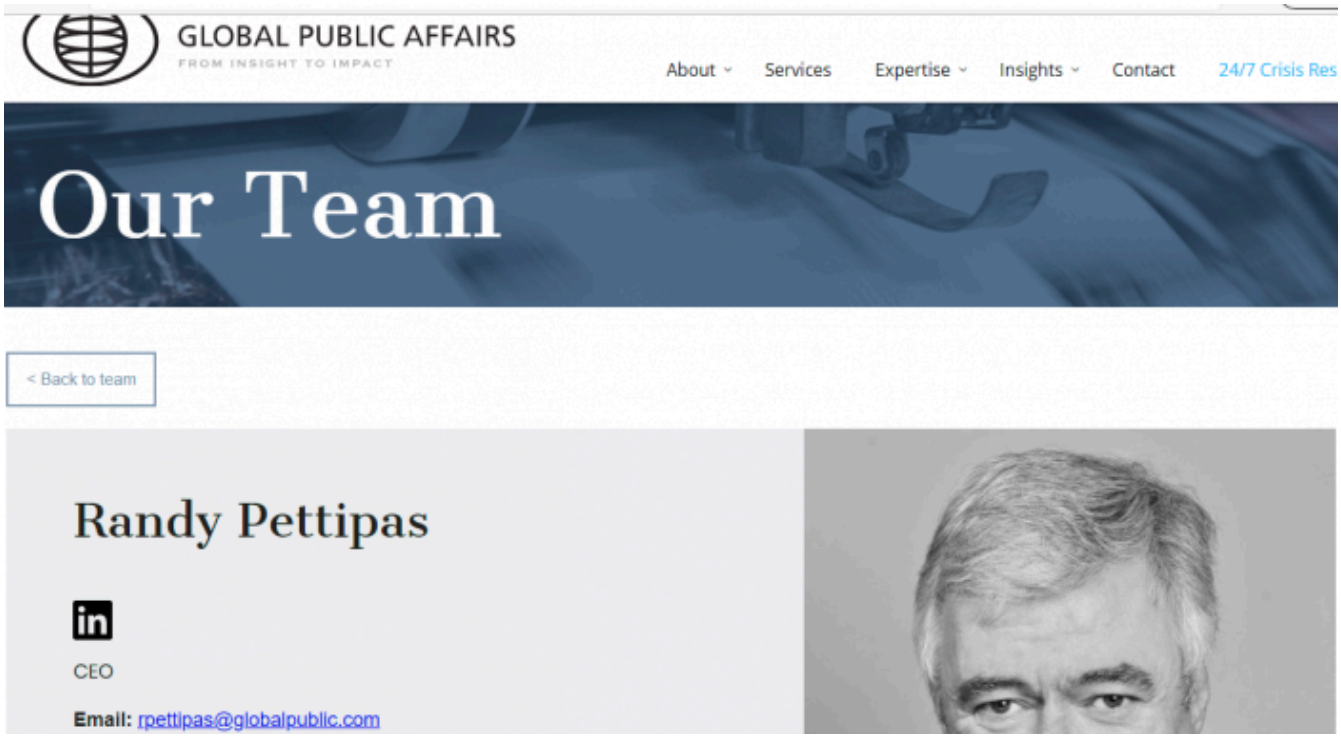
Chief of Staff
Office of the Leader of the Official Opposition (Ontario)
Sep 1999 – Oct 2003 · 4 yrs 2 mos
Senior political advisor to the Leader of the Ontario Liberal Party and Leader of the Official Ppposition; head of the Liberal Caucus Service Office, managing 50 political professionals; played senior role in the development of the Liberal party platform and the campaign strategy that resulted in the resounding Liberal election win in 2003.

Most interesting. Before getting into lobbying, Dewan was the Chief of Staff for the Ontario Liberal Party. As for other dirt on Counsel Public Affairs, see: here, here, here, here and here. It's quite the cesspit.

6. Randy Pettipas (Various Groups)



Randy Pettipas has a reputation for providing strong strategic policy advice and solid results in all major industries such as energy, natural resources, telecommunications and transportation, among others. He is a trusted advisor to the leaders of many of Canada's largest corporations. As CEO, Randy provides strong leadership and guides the overall growth strategy for Global Public Affairs. Since Randy joined the firm in 1997, Global has expanded its reach beyond Ottawa, establishing offices across Canada. Global now operates in federal, provincial and municipal jurisdictions, providing team-based government relations and communications services offering to clients across Canada and internationally.

Randy previously held senior positions in the federal government, serving as a Minister's Chief of Staff and a senior advisor on issues in Western Canada, both in the Office of the Leader of the Official Opposition and the Prime Minister's Office, from 1990 to 1997.

Randy currently serves on the advisory board of the Canada Institute at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars in Washington, DC. He is also actively involved as a volunteer in the Calgary community, currently serving on the boards of the Calgary Zoo, Arts Commons and the Calgary Chapter of the Institute of Corporate Directors (ICD). Randy is also past board chair of Hospice Calgary.

Pettipas has spent time inside the Federal Government, and was a Chief of Staff for a Minister (although it doesn't list which one). His biography explains a lot.

For some background on Alberta Health Services, check out this piece. This organization isn't quite what most people think it is.

Of course, Kenney got an honourable mention in the piece about Rubicon Strategy. Kory Teneycke is currently acting as a handler for Ontario Premier Doug Ford.

This list is far from exhaustive, but should provide some insight into just who has been pulling Jason Kenney's strings as of late. There are certainly others, but the pharmaceutical industry listings seem very abundant recently. Kenney appears to serve almost everyone except Albertans.

Never knew Premier Sell Out was so closely aligned with Pig Pharma. All Canadian government is now the enemy of the people including Chairman Turdeau and all the premiers as well as the majority of MPs and MPPs. Time for a revolution, it's coming. They will reap what they've sown. Canadian government including Premier Sell Out support vaccine rape and murder. When you say to someone "If you don't let me stick this in you you can't work or eat" that is rape and genocide. When people can't work they can't eat so the government intends on killing all unvaxxed Canadians. Let's all think about that while sipping out Tim's poison.
